I enclose herewith a copy of my letter to Senator Clements which is self-explanatory. I am also enclosing for each of you corrected copies of Pages 8, 13, 20, 33 and 34 which should be substituted for the pages of the same number in the footnoted Position Paper sent to you with my letter of May 22, 1967. The changes were made after I had checked with Dr. Hockett as to the accuracy of some of the statements which were questioned by some of you. The old pages should be destroyed. Since the document was rather bulky, I did not have the complete document rerun except for the one copy I have sent to Senator Clements.

Sincerely,

David R. Hardy
